

Nature and Sport: CINQUE TERRE & FERRARI

&

1st day – MILANO – MONEGLIA (CINQUE TERRE)

Arrival at Milan. Journey to the center of Milan to a short sightseeing tour : Our first stop is the famous Cathedral of Milan, one of the few Gothic buildings in all of Italy . We continue through the Gallery Vittorio Emanuele (see photo) , called by the Milan of "Salon " , for one of the most famous opera houses in the world . The walk continues to built our " Castello Sforzesco " , in 1450 by the Prince Sforza of Milan, today the park is accessible to the public .

In the afternoon drive towards Cinque Terre. Approximate driving time of 4 hours

Dinner and overnight in Deiva Marina or the Moneglia or La Spezia

2nd day – CINQUE TERRE

Breakfast at the hotel. Visit to the Cinque Terre by train and ship. The best of the Italian Riviera is probably the " Cinque Terre " (Five Lands area), a 12-kilometer long sheltered rocky coastline with wonderful places Monterosso , Vernazza , Corniglia, Manarola and Riomaggiore. In deep, narrow ravines , the five villages are adventurous with nested colorful houses under lush terraced vineyards . By car , this region can not be achieved , which is of course an advantage for the preservation of this scenic coastline . You take the train from place to place and finally back to the ship back Dinner and overnight in Deiva Marina or the Moneglia or La Spezia.

3rd day – CINQUE TERRE - BOLOGNA

Breakfast at the hotel. Journey across the Tuscan countryside in Emilia Romagna . Visit to Carrara, where in the Apuan Alps for over 2000 years, the most beautiful marble is mined . Visit a quarry with explanations for the production and processing of this rock .Continue to Bologna (approximate driving time of 4 hours) , once Italy's most important university, rich and vibrant city today . A walk through the beautiful old town leads us to the huge Gothic church of San Petronio and Piazza Maggiore , Santo Stefano and San Domenico , grave church of St. Dominic , the Palazzo della Mercanzia , and in the 12th Century . erected towers . Way to a dinner in a typical restaurant in Bologna with tasting of the famous tortellini. Overnight stay in Bologna.

5th day – BOLOGNA - MILAN

Breakfast at the hotel. Departure in the morning towards Maranello, where the " Galleria Ferrari " is . This collection of the rarest and most valuable Ferraris also includes many Formula 1 race cars (including the cars of Niki Lauda, Gerhard Berger and Michael Schumacher) .

Continue to Parma and opportunity to lunch in a typical restaurant with tasting of Parma ham and local wine Lambrusco . Parma is a former city-state that has been paid by the Vatican of the Farnese family. Tour of the Palazzo della Pilota , which also houses the Teatro Farnese , inspired by the famous architect Palladio. Not to be missed are also the Cathedral and Baptistery .

Flight home from Milan in the late afternoon

Ask for Informaiton or Send a Request